

Membership Introduction

Armenian Chinese Partnership Center (ACPC) is non governmental organization based in Yerevan, Armenia. ACPC aims to promote and develop Armenian and Chinese Partnership through business collaboration, education & science and Cultural exchange programs. We help Armenian and Chinese firms to establish alliances and joint ventures to extend their market share and R&D capabilities. To improve businesses focused on international trade and their position in foreign markets. We assist students to find related educational programs and scholarships, providing opportunity for researchers to engage in projects and publish their results. We build bridge for artists, art students, art institutions and galleries between Armenia and China. Organizing events, music concerts, exhibitions and other cultural activities.

Since its establishment in 2017, ACPC has made great achievements on cooperation between Armenia and China by two – ways both to organize enterprises, businessman and organizations participating in Chinese events held on various cities for various industrial fields to assist attendees catching opportunities of trade, investment and R&D, and to organize professional business trip of Chinese governmental or entrepreneurs delegation to Armenia to promote collaboration on trade, culture, sports, science and technology and investment between China and Armenia. ACPC organize for its members, manufacturers as well as buyers to participate in more than 60 events in China each year.

In order to provide members with better service, ACPC has been launching a membership management system to strengthen communication, exchange and connection on trade, culture, science and technology, environmental protection and investment for all of member and to deepen the official and non-governmental exchanges between China and Armenia.

ACPC set up WeChat official account and Weibo which regularly shares business events and activities for members. At the same time, the notices and news of ACPC will be published on the official website of Armenian Chinese Partnership Center (www.acpc.am), so that members can timely get information about business events and promote on Chinese social media .

The members of ACPC are divided into three levels which are Individual Member, Corporate Member and Exclusive Member. ACPC membership is open to all overseas nations.
